Confidentiality Statement for Visitors, Students and Volunteers

Northern Oswego County Health Services, Inc. has a very strong commitment to protecting the confidentiality of its patients' protected health information.

All visitors, students and volunteers are bound by the same rules of confidentiality that staff of NOCHSI is required to follow. Any information that is seen or heard during your visit is confidential and no re-disclosure of that information is allowed in any way.

If a breach is discovered during your visit here; you will be immediately asked to leave the building. Your supervisor will be informed of your conduct and you will not be allowed in the Center again for anything other than a visit with a provider. If the breach is of a serious nature with intent for personal gain or malice; legal action may be initiated.

I understand the above statement and will keep confidential all information that I have access to during my visit or training period at Northern Oswego County Health Services, Inc.
