	the project level. Eric reviewed the sources of data inputs used to create the proposed methodology, including December, 2014, interviews with Project Leads, speed/scale considerations, and patient engagement assumptions. Comments and discussion with the group centered on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Patient complications affect FTEs/caseload. • How does the methodology account for input from the partners? • Are nursing staffing ratios taken into consideration? • Capacity, lead time, and training resources may all be affected by union contracts.
NYSDOH Updates	NYSDOH convened a Compensation and Benefits Stakeholders group to discuss anti-trust issues associated with the Compensation & Benefits Analysis. The group met twice during the month of October. Organizations invited to attend included HWNY, Iroquois Healthcare Association (IHA), Healthcare Association of New York State (HANYs), the Center for Health Workforce Studies, 1199, and representatives from individual PPSs. Anita Merrill and Ashleigh McGowan represented HWNY at the meetings. Prior to the meetings, HWNY met with the representatives of 5 Upstate PPSs, including CNYCC to ensure their concerns were represented at the table. Between meetings, HWNY submitted a report with Upstate PPS concerns. New guidance was issued between meetings reducing reporting requirements to every six months and reducing Compensation and Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Jessica Mead HWNY/AHEC to re-send NYSDOH list of job titles to members; a document will be developed with NYSDOH job titles as well as the job descriptions referenced by NYSDOH when creating the list. • Kari will send out “Getting Ready for the New Normal”- DSRIP YouTube Video.

	analysis from 5 to 3. Following the second meeting HWNY and IHA submitted a report suggesting data from the Compensation and Benefits Analysis be used to measure impact analysis (i.e. full vs. partial placement) of redeployed and retrained health workers. A third meeting is scheduled for early November to consider this proposal.
Training Strategy	Kari and Anita have presented to 9 out of 11 PIC's with two meetings scheduled for November.	Kari and Anita to complete PIC presentations.
